

B&B Design and Consign Consignment Policies

Bring up to 25 home décor accessories anytime up until 1 hour before closing daily

For furnishings you may bring a photo by or email to consign@bandbdesignconsign.com. Upon approval, please give us a time frame for expected delivery and please bring help to unload your items!

Bob and Brian are experienced Consigners. We have a steady stream of customers and sell your items for you, instead of you having to deal with a yard sale, or other venues that take up your valuable time and effort. Just bring your items and we handle the rest.

- Consignment split: All items are a 55/ 45% split between the consignor and B&B Design and Consign, the Consigner receiving 45% of the selling price.
- Prices are reduced 25% after 25 days, 50% after 50 days, then remains at 75% until it sells or 90 days. After 90 days, it is either returned to the Consigner or donated to charity.
- Items priced over $100 are subject to a maximum markdown of 50% and not subject to a 75% markdown. All items are subject to sales and discounts at the shop's discretion.
- Consignors may call or come by to check their balance and pick up their checks during regular business hours. Balance may also be used as store credit. Amounts under $40 can be paid in cash.
- Pricing is done by our staff, according to our experience and knowledge of current market values.
- Any information you have about an item's original history, pricing, and age are appreciated.
- Items are kept in the store for 90 days and are subject to donation after the 90th day. Unsold items are donated to charity.
- There is a $10 annual fee deducted from the consignor's account with the 1st consignment of each calendar year.
- Consignors may pick up unsold items after 25 days. Any item picked up prior to 25 days will incur a 25% charge against the account per item.
- A Consignor is responsible for locating unsold items in the store. We will print a list of unsold items, but we will not look for them for you.
- We do our best to care for your items, but there is no guarantee against theft or damage.
- As a courtesy B&B refers a pick-up and delivery service who charges a nominal fee.
